

Meet Jeanette Windle, Pennsylvania

Speaker, Novelist, Journalist, Freelance Editor

Award-winning speaker, novelist and missions journalist Jeanette Windle has lived in six countries and traveled in more than thirty. Those experiences have birthed 16 fiction titles, including bestselling Veiled Freedom (2010 ECPA Christian Book Award/Christy Award finalist) sequel Freedom's Stand, (2012 ECPA Christian Book Award/Carol Award finalist), and Congo Dawn (2013 Golden Scroll Novel of the Year) as well as non-fiction collaborative titles such as Forgiven: The Amish Schoolhouse Shooting, a Mother's Love, and a Story of Remarkable Grace (Bethany House, 2015).

Sample Speaking Topics:

Need an event speaker or conference faculty?

Jeanette is a frequent speaker at writers conferences, international ministry events, women's retreats, and has taught seminars on a wide variety of topics in more than a dozen countries on five continents in both English and Spanish. An expert on Latin America, Afghanistan, and current events around the globe, she has been interviewed for radio, TV, and print media in both North and Latin America.

Endorsements:

"Jeanette Windle grabs your heart and gives you the truth . . . you walk away with your heart changed."
—Christian Women On-line

"Jeanette turns detailed reporting, gospel understanding, and a suspenseful plot into a story that will keep you turning pages and thinking more deeply about God's love and human suffering."
—WORLD Magazine

"Jeanette Windle is a top-notch storyteller"
—Publishers Weekly

"Jeanette effortlessly blends journalistic objectivity, humanitarian interest, faith-based inspiration, and the struggle of individuals to determine what is right."
— American Library Association Booklist

Contact Jeanette:

Email: jeanette@jeanettewindle.com

Address: 1776 Euclid Drive, Lancaster, PA 17601

Cell-Phone: 717-209-0011

(*Email preferred first contact)

Writing to Touch the World (Keynote): An author whose ministry and novels transverse the planet's darkest corners, Jeanette Windle shares from her own walk through life's storms how every person's unique journey with God can become a message that will touch and change this world.

Sarah: Trusting God through Others' Mistakes. When the man you love gets you thrown in a harem, where do you turn for rescue? One of a series addressing concerns of today's woman through a fresh look at biblical characters.

Keep Your Hands in the Canoe!

Lighthearted moments and spiritual application from Jeanette's life experiences in the jungles, mountains, and towns of Latin America.

CIA 101—Investigative Techniques from the Trenches:

Learn the investigative techniques by which political/suspense novelist Jeanette Windle has created fiction realistic enough for government agencies to question whether she obtained classified information.

Candid Confessions of a Novice Novelist: A hilarious romp through the most common mistakes of the beginning fiction writer and how to avoid them.

Afghanistan, Sharia, and Freedom—Can They Co-exist?

Collateral Damage: Women and Children at Risk in Global Conflicts.

See more under Speaker at www.jeanettewindle.com