

Praying For Your Goals

By Angela Breidenbach

These prayers are written in first person so that you can experience them personally.

Dear Lord, All around me the day is rushing fast. Help me to remember you're in control. Please grant me focus and clarity. Help my dreams to be a delightful surprise that pleases you. Then at the end of the week, open my eyes to see the progress. Help me to stop criticizing myself and start seeing what I can do instead of what I can't.

In Jesus name, Amen

Dear Lord, Thank you for giving me the talent to achieve my goals. Thank you for giving me the desire. Thank you for giving me the ideas. Please hone my talent, desire, and ideas into the shape you want them to take. Please help me to lay my talent, desire, and ideas at your feet as an offering. Then help me to hear your voice and direction to pick it up and do what you want with it so that it pleases you. Help me to hear your laughter and pleasure. Help me to feel it in my heart and pour it out into my daily life as I walk toward the goals you set in my heart from the beginning.

In Jesus name, Amen

Dear Lord, you know I love my family. You hear me pray for them, worry over them, and know I want time with them. But I...

Oh. Like you want time with me. I get it. But what about respect for my time to...

Oh. Like I'm supposed to respect you and your time. Hmm. I see your point.

Let me try this again...

Lord, would you help me take time with you and then balance the rest of my week?

In Jesus name, Amen
