Many Christian parents are concerned about the influence of media violence on their children. The good news is that there are major movies that the whole family will enjoy that do teach faith and values.

Here are twenty that would be fun to watch and analyze as a family this summer when the children are seeking entertainment and parents are seeking to teach faith and values through powerful movie parables. Please go to www.movieguide.org for the complete review and any and all age related cautions:
