

What Color is Your Personality?

God created everyone in his own image, but he made each of us unique. It would be a plain world if God had made us all the same. But just as different colors make up a rainbow, different personalities make up our world. What color best suits your personality? Take the quiz below about a trip to an amusement park and find out. Circle the answer that best describes you for each question.

1. You are at the amusement park with a group of friends. You are trying to decide what ride to go on first. You suggest:
 - a. The fastest roller coaster. You're ready for a thrill.
 - b. The log ride. You want all your friends to be together.
 - c. The train. You want to start out easy.
 - d. The teacups. You know everyone will have fun on those.
2. It's lunchtime at the amusement park and no one can agree where to eat. You suggest:
 - a. Everyone tries the new food booth that specializes in hot, spicy food.
 - b. The food booth you know your best friend really wants to eat at.
 - c. Everyone goes to the food booth of her choice and meets at a table.
 - d. Hot dogs, fries, and cotton candy.
3. Your little brother is at home, but he asked you to win him a stuffed animal at the amusement park arcade. It costs a dollar a try! You:
 - a. Hand over a dollar at the arcade game. You know you can win it for him.
 - b. Hand over as much as it takes so your brother won't be disappointed.
 - c. Give it one try. If you miss you can always get him something at the gift shop.
 - d. Talk an athletic-looking boy standing there into winning it for you.
4. There's only time for one more ride. You say:
 - a. It's my turn to choose. You'll all love this ride.
 - b. I think you should choose because you haven't chosen as many.
 - c. Doesn't matter to me.
 - d. Let's go on the most fun one.
5. After your day out you feel:
 - a. Full of energy
 - b. Thoughtful
 - c. Relaxed
 - d. Happy

Count up how many you have of each letter. If you have mostly:

A's – Your color is red. You are energetic, bold, and confident. You are often the leader, and the one to try something new. You don't mind taking a risk or facing a challenge. Those things leave you feeling energized. You often get your own way because you're more assertive than some of your friends, and you seldom give in to peer pressure to do something wrong. In fact, you often turn it around and talk the others into doing something good and worthwhile. Let God guide your ways and you will develop into a strong, confident leader.

B's – Your color is blue. You are loyal, compassionate, and thoughtful. You stand by your friends and think about what they want to do and what they need. You spend time reflecting on your day and writing in a journal about your feelings. You tend to feel things more strongly than your friends do. In fact, at times people tell you you're too sensitive. But at the same time, those feelings also make you more aware of the needs around you. You care about those less fortunate than yourself. In the future God may use you to help some of those people as a teacher, missionary, or social worker.

C's – Your color is pink. You are easy-going, patient, and a peacekeeper. Most things don't get you stirred up or bothered. That's why you hate it when your friends argue. You step in and try to get them to work it out. You don't have strong opinions, so you seldom argue, although you do feel strongly about your faith. Sometimes people encourage you to get more involved and you do-as long as it's something that's important to you. That's why you'll choose a career where you can do something meaningful to help others.

D's – Your color is yellow. You are cheerful, talkative, and friendly. Although your teachers call you a chatterbox, you add life to the classroom and to social events. Your happy nature is contagious, and people like to be with you. You find it easy to talk to new people of all ages. You love to have fun, but you also know when you need to be serious about things. It's easy for you to tell others about your faith in Jesus and to invite your classmates to church. And they usually go because they know that when they're with you they'll have a great time.
